UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

AFTERMATH CLEANING COMPANY, INC., Plaintiff,	) ) ) CIVIL ACTION NO. 05-11302 NG )
v.	, )
AFTERMATH, INC.,	) )
Defendant.	) ) )

AFFIDAVIT OF STEPHEN RAYMOND

- I, Stephen R. Raymond, do hereby depose and state as follows:
- 1. I own the Kane Funeral Home in Easton, Massachusetts.
- On or about March, 2005, I worked with Aftermath Cleaning Company, Inc.
   ("Aftermath") on a site clean up in Easton, Massachusetts. Prior to that, I was familiar with Aftermath as an established company in Massachusetts.
- Based on my work with Aftermath in March 2005, I was very favorably impressed by Michael Wiseman and his company and decided to work exclusively with his company from that point forward.
- 4. Sometime prior to March 2005, I got a mailing from "Aftermath" with a magnet.

  A true and accurate copy of the magnet is attached as Exhibit A. Thinking that the magnet was from the Massachusetts company, Aftermath, I placed it on my file cabinet.
  - 5. On or about May, 2005, I was called by police to a death scene in Easton.
- 6. I suggested to the family that a bio-hazard clean up would be required at the site.

  When I returned to my office, intending to call Mr. Wiseman's company, Aftermath, I phoned the number on the magnet and gave them the family's number to call. When I told the person with whom I spoke that the site was in Easton, he asked what state that was in. I recall being puzzled by that since I knew that Aftermath was a Massachusetts company.

7. I did not realize that the company that I phoned was not Michael Wiseman's company, Aftermath until I later spoke with Michael Wiseman and he informed me.

Signed under the pains and penalties of perjury this ____ day of July, 2005.
